ALMA MATER

In the shadow of the mountain by Kanawha's River

Our beloved Alma Mater proudly stands for ever

Morris Harvey, Morris Harvey, true we'll ever be

Morris Harvey, Morris Harvey, hail, all hail to thee.

A year at Morris Harvey College. . . .

The first arrival. . . .

Who's

Twenty-five Morris Harvey students were listed this year in the publication, WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES. These students were chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, and activities. Among those named were:

Connie Ansel, education major, member of Phi Lambda Tau sorority, W.A.A., 1953 home-coming queen.

Dallas Ashby, history major, member of Sigma Delta Phi fraternity, and vice president of the Student Council.

Ezra Boehm, management major, Student Council president, and member of Sigma Delta Phi fraternity.

Pauline Chenoweth, education major, president of the women's residence hall council, secretary of Sigma Iota Chi sorority, member of the Methodist Student Movement, and scholarship student.

Constance Ciccarello, education major, secretary of Phi Kappa Kappa sorority, member of the F.T.A. and the Newman Club, and 1954 attendant to the home-coming queen.

Eloise Crickard, social science major, president of Sigma Iota Chi sorority, state Methodist Student Movement representative, and scholarship student.

Serepta Corbett, education major, member of Phi Kappa Kappa sorority, F.T.A., Newman Club and Art Guild.

Thomas Dixon, physical education major, member of the football team and men's dorm council.

Dolores Flesher, education major, cheerleader, member of Phi Lambda Tau sorority and W.A.A. and junior home-coming attendant last year.

Robert Johnson, education major, president of the senior class, past president of the Sigma Delta Phi fraternity, member of the Debate Club and the F.T.A.

Who

Jack Lawhorn, pre-ministerial student, president of the Panhellenic Council, member of Sigma Delta Phi fraternity, Ministerial Association, and basketball team.

Lewis McManus, education major, veteran, and member of the Student Council.

Virginia Martin, education major, member of Phi Kappa Kappa sorority, and the Panhellenic Council.

George Park, business management major, past president of Zeta Kappa fraternity, and vice president of the Panhellenic Council.

Jean Parkins, education major, member of Phi Kappa Kappa sorority, Debate Club, F.T.A., and the Methodist Student Movement.

Neale Shahan, education major, president of the F.T.A., Comet staff member, and member of Phi Sigma Phi fraternity.

Freda Simon, education major, member of Sigma Iota Chi sorority, the Choir, and the F.T.A.

Brisben Smith, mathematics major, honor student, senior class officer, member of the basketball team and Chi Beta Phi scientific fraternity.

Bonetta Songer, education major, member of Phi Lambda Tau sorority and the W.A.A.

Dorthea Cramer Turley, education major, cheerleader, past president of Phi Kappa Kappa sorority, senior attendant to the home-coming queen, and member of the Blackfriars.

Drexel Vealey, business major, past president of the junior class, past editor of the Harveyan, and member of Phi Sigma Phi fraternity.

Joanne White, art major, president of Phi Kappa Kappa sorority, home-coming queen, sweetheart of Phi Sigma Phi, and member of the Art Guild.

Patrick Wisman, music education major, member of Kappa Sigma Kappa fraternity, Choir, Band, and Tempo Club.

The Comet

Published weekly during the regular school year, The Comet provides campus news and commentaries on current local affairs. The newspaper is staffed and edited entirely by Morris Harvey students. Full tuition scholarships are granted to the editor and business manager.

For the past 34 years The Comet has given students the opportunity to put into practice what they have learned in the various journalism classes. Those working on the business side get practical experience in advertising, layout, and circulation procedures.

Aside from its reportorial and business functions, the paper has been a medium of entertainment. Bob Barron's "The Barron Waste" wowed students the first semester while David Parker's "Parkerites" followed suit the second term.

This year The Comet followed the modern trend in newspaper design by adopting the flush left headline and using san-serif type faces.

The Harveyan

The 1955-56 Harveyan is one of the most unique editions ever published by Morris Harvey students. Departing from the usual full-year preparation period, this year's annual was compiled, in its entirety, during the second semester.

Another unusual factor is that the annual contains no advertising. Funds for its publication costs were raised on a 50-50 basis by the college and student subscribers.

As is the purpose of all yearbooks, the Harveyan attempts to present a pictorial record of the past year with sidelights on individual students, their organizations, and activities. This edition covers the period from March, 1955, to March, 1956.

The Harveyan editor and chief photographer are awarded full tuition scholarships. This year, however, two co-editors were appointed. Both acted in the double capacity of editor and photographer.

Any student may apply for Harveyan positions but the inherent nature of the work makes some previous experience mandatory.

Harveyan co-editors, Flora Lee Hanger and Ernest Martin discuss a problem with Dr. John Kinnaman, faculty advisor.

Student Council

Elected each spring by popular vote, the Student Council regulates and initiates most student activities. In addition to the four officers, the Council is composed of two delegates from each class.

Besides the honor of belonging to the Student Council, the members obtain valuable experience in administrative work and in human relations.

As it is in most years, the major project of the current Council was the home-coming activities. Probably next in importance was the Sadie Hawkins Day ceremonies. Other projects included the publication of a student handbook, the renovation and renaming of the snack bar, the series of weekly student mixes, and the May Day Sing.

By its direct contact with the Panhellenic Council and other groups through the Student Round Table, the Council contributes greatly toward the solving of campus problems, and at the same time discovers student reaction to pertinent questions.

Co-ordinating and supervising the activities of the nine Greek-letter organizations on campus, the Panhellenic Council is one of the college's most important governing bodies.

Each semester the Council, in joint action with the administration, formulates the rules for rushing, bidding, and pledging. It also sees that each fraternity and sorority is provided with lists of eligible prospective members.

This year, Pan-Hell worked closely with the Student Council in the home-coming activities, with the speech department during the December forensic meet here, and played a prominent part in the newly-formed Student Round Table. The Council was also instrumental in promoting the idea of publishing an annual for the 1955-56 year.

Membership is made up of the three council officers and two representatives from each Greek organization. Officers are elected during the latter part of the spring semester.

Panhellenic Council

AM

This year Alpha Mu sorority, the oldest on campus, celebrated its 29th birthday with its annual birthday party for the student body.

Alpha Mu was organized on October 14, 1925, to promote friendly social relations on the campus, as well as to develop character and personality within the sorority.

Active in all phases of campus life, the Alpha Mu's are represented in choir, band, FTA, Tempo Club, Panhellenic Council, Wesley Foundation, Ushers Club, Sadie Hawkins Day, and Home-coming.

Special honors received by the sorority this year were attendants to Miss Greek and attendant to Home-coming Queen.

The activities they sponsored were numerous bake sales, parties, annual fashion show, tea, and annual spring formal.

ΦΚΚ

Phi Kappa Kappa Sorority, largest sorority on campus, was organized in 1928. An active organization, the Phi Kaps sponsor many campus activities, including Howdy Day, Twilight Tea, the Hawaiian Rush Party, Sock Hop, Mother's Day Tea, Party for Honorary Members, Bowery Party, Style Show for all Morris Harvey students, party given by pledges for the actives, the spring formal, and the White Rose Ball.

Besides the busy life on campus, the Phi Kappa Kappa women help in the community. They gave a party for the Hillcrest Sanitarium children at Easter, and went to the Davis Child Shelter twice weekly to help tutor the children.

Many honors have come to the Phi Kappa women. They won the May Day Sing last spring, when Patty Hendrickson reigned as May Queen with Barbara Ross, Nancy Henry, Jean Parkins, and Judy McCutcheon as her attendants. Phi Kappa Kappa president, Joanne White, was this year's Home-coming Queen with Phi Kap attendants Doph Turley, and Barbara Tucker, who was Miss West Virginia for 1955. Jean Parkins was chosen Miss Greek at the Zeta Kappa all-Greek dance. The Phi Kappa Kappa sorority boasts six girls in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities for 1956.

ΣΙΧ

Beta Nu Chapter of Sigma Iota Chi was founded in 1936 at Kanawha College and is the oldest national sorority on campus. The purpose of Sigma Iota Chi is to aid in the social growth and character development of its members. The Sigmas' activities include a Home-coming Alumni Banquet, Home-coming parade (tied for first place in parade floats), annual tea and rush party, rituals, Christmas party, the Shamrock Dance, Mother-Daughter Banquet, and the Spring Formal. The sorority's members are represented in the Choir, Panhellenic Council, Ushers Club, Art Guild, F.T.A., Harveyan Staff, Comet Staff, Wesley Fellowship, Class Officers in Junior and Senior Classes, Blackfriars, Women's Dorm council and W.A.A.

Honors received by Sigmas this year include the three senior members being chosen for Who's Who, president of the Art Guild, president of the Ushers Club, secretary of the Student Round Table, president of Women's Dorm, and "Daisy Mae" at Sadie Hawkins Day.

ZME

Mu Chapter of Zeta Mu Epsilon Sorority was organized at Morris Harvey May 3, 1948. This makes Zeta Mu the youngest on campus.

The organization was founded in 1921 at Stephens College for Women, Columbia, Missouri. They are internationally linked, having sisters in Japan, Korea, Africa and England.

The objectives of this sorority is to establish a perpetual bond of friendship among its members, to develop a strong character and to broaden moral, social and intellectual life.

Activities include a home-coming luncheon for actives and alumnae, and annual tea and western rush party. The Zeta Mu's are active in Blackfriars, Choir, Future Teachers of America, Panhellenic Council, Alpha Psi Omega, and assist with forensic meets.

Though they had only three active members the first semester, they kept up tradition by decorating Laidley Field for the annual Home-coming game with Tech.

KΣK

Although one of the youngest fraternities on the Morris Harvey campus, Kappa Sigma Kappa has the distinction of being the college's only national-international group. The first chapter was established in 1867 at Virginia Military Institute. Since then the fraternity has spread to all parts of the globe—presently comprised of 50 chapters. There are five chapters in West Virginia alone.

Kappa Sigma Kappa pioneered the idea of "Help Week" and continues to emphasize a service period rather than the rough initiation period still in practice by many other groups.

At Morris Harvey, the Kappa Sigs led all other fraternities in overall scholastic averages for the last semester of the 1954-55 school year. This year the fraternity won the Greek intramural basketball crown. An effort to strengthen the ties between the different state chapters was successfully made through a series of basketball games and various social events.

ΦΣΦ

The Phi Sigma Phi fraternity was founded October 20, 1929, at Concord State Teachers College and the Beta Chapter was formed November 14, 1929, at Barboursville. The goals of the fraternity have been the same since its organization. Those are uniting men students, instilling a spirit of campus fellowship, and promoting the interests of the college.

The events sponsored this year are the Turkey Hop, the Bunny Hop, Christmas formal, spring formal, dinner dance and numerous stag parties for members only.

Having the only fraternity alumni association, men of the Phi Sigma Phi can enter into this organization upon graduation from Morris Harvey, and can therefore keep in close connection with the chapter on campus.

When Morris Harvey was taking pledges for the now present Administration Building, the men of Phi Sigma Phi contributed $300 to the building fund. During the building fund campaign of this year the men of the fraternity came through with $2,160.

ΣΔΦ

Boasting the largest membership of all Greek organizations on the campus, the Sigma Delta Phi fraternity is a leader in all phases of college activity.

Their members hold the highest posts in the governing councils of the campus. They are represented in all phases of sports—football, basketball, baseball. They have members in Blackfriars, Student Council, Panhellenic Council, Art Guild, Band, Debate Club, Alpha Psi Omega, Pi Kappa Delta, Future Teachers of America.

The Sigma Delts sponsored six annual events beginning with the first Welcome Dance of the year and continued with their Thanksgiving dance, the Plymouth Rock, and their Christmas formal, Spring dance and their Sweetheart Weekend, which is the only one held on campus. This consists of a full weekend of activities climaxed by the crowning of Sigma Delt Sweetheart.

Each year the fraternity presents the Gary M. Keener Memorial Award to the brother contributing most to school and the fraternity.

Faculty advisor for the fraternity is Luther V. Koontz, Assistant Professor of Business Administration.

ZK

Zeta Kappa activities were carried on admirably by its 1956 members in the tradition of the fraternity, the first social fraternity to come to the Morris Harvey campus.

Zeta Kappa members have sponsored many social activities on campus, including the All-Greek Dance, Christmas party and the Spring Formal. Miss Jean Parkins reigned as Miss Greek.

Band, Glee Club, Art Guild, Comet Staff, Wesley Foundation, Ministerial Association, intramurals and Tempo club comprise some of the organizations in which ZK members have actives. A ZK holds the second highest position in the governing body of the Greeks.

"Create, not imitate" is the motto of the Zeta Kappa Fraternity and their pledge program carries out a high sense of purpose undergirded by ideals of ethics and comradeship. A great opportunity lies within this fraternity for service and self development.

Morris Harvey traveled to Tennessee to open the 1955 football season, September 16. Middle Tennessee upset the local gridders with an excellent passing game and they were also really tough in the clutch, completing two fourth-down passes to down the Golden Eagles.

The Eagles' best performance of the game came in the third period when they recovered a mid-field fumble and drove for their only touchdown. Paul Rice plunged over from the one on a quarterback sneak and Bob Brown converted for the Eagles' only point.

The 1954 Tangerine Bowl Champions, University of Tampa Spartans, arrived in Charleston, September 24, for a return match with Morris Harvey. The Gee Eagles were the Spartans' opponents in the '54 Tangerine Bowl classic.

South Charleston's Oakes Field was the scene of this see-saw battle. Tampa's Bill Nuznoff ran from the Eagles' 15 for the first tally of the game. Bob Gambrelle's kick went wild and the Spartans led 6-0.

Tampa's Don Herndon took the second-half kickoff for a 57-yard sprint down the field before being brought down and fumbled on the MH 35. Jim Stec grabbed the ball for Morris Harvey.

Ray Jones, on the next play, took the ball to the Eagles' 42. He then made a 50-yard dash before being brought down on the Spartans' eight. Jones crashed through center on the fourth down for the first Eagles' score. Bob Brown made the extra point good and the Kingmen led 7-6.

The first play of the fourth quarter saw Tampa's Tom Spack run around left end for an eight-yard touchdown jaunt. Ted Grune's kick was blocked. The Spartans nosed the Golden Eagles 13-7.

Len Hellyer drove seven yards over left tackle, with 53 seconds remaining in the first quarter, Saturday night, October 1, to start Marshall's Big Green towards a 46-7 victory over Morris Harvey.

The second Marshall tally came deep in the second quarter. With five minutes remaining, Hellyer plunged from the Eagles' four-yard line to make the score 14-0.

After the kickoff Marshall's Cagle Curtis intercepted a pass thrown by the Eagles' Joe Romano on his own 17 and returned it to his own 35-yard line.

Six running plays carried the ball to the Morris Harvey 25-yard line. Marshall's Zban faked to his right halfback and fullback, then handed the ball to Curtis, his left halfback, who ran over the right side of the Eagles' line for the third touchdown.

One second remained in the first half when the Green tallied touchdown number four. Freeman bulled through the middle from the one for the score.

The Big Green's three touchdowns in the second half helped contribute to the 46-7 rout.

Victory starved Morris Harvey upset the favored Youngstown Penguins 14-12 in the fourth game of the campaign.

After 12 plays in the opening stanza, Joe Romano sprinted 30 yards for the first Gee Eagles' tally. Bob Brown followed with the extra point.

In the second half the Penguins recovered a MH fumble on the Eagles' nine-yard line. A five-yard penalty against Morris Harvey moved the ball to the four and the Penguins' Dawson legged his way into the end zone for the first Youngstown tally. The try for the extra point failed.

In the third period tackle George Carter broke through and rocked fullback Ray Carter of the Penguins into fumbling at the MH 15. Romano and Powers carried the pigskin to the one with Maxwell crashing over for the score. Brown's placement was good and the Eagles won 14-6.

Morris Harvey added to the Home-coming festivities as they upset the applecart of victory-minded West Virginia Tech, 43-14.

Golden Eagles led 12-7 after a hard-fought first half.

Midway through the third stanza Eddie Coffman crashed through the center line and ran 67 yards for the score. John Bieletti kicked the only extra point for the Eagles to make the score 19-7.

On touchdown runs made by Coffman and Dick Powers the score stood 31-7.

Tech rallied briefly, moving the ball 51 yards for a touchdown. Weese's placement made it 31-14.

With Joe Cielensky as quarterback, the Eagles parlayed the ensuing kickoff into a 65-yard touchdown drive. Jim Thornton sparked the drive and finally scored from the eight to make it 37-14.

With time running out, Shreves passed. MH's Billy Campbell intercepted and sprinted 62 yards downfield for the Gee Birds' seventh TD. That left the scoreboard with a 43-14 count and Tech with a broken four-game winning streak.

Fullback Eddie Coffman raced 57 yards early in the third period to set up Morris Harvey's lone touchdown of the evening, as the Eastern Kentucky 'Maroons' downed the South Ruffners 20-6, October 29, at Richmond, Ky.

On three runs of 13, 14, and 57 yards the Maroons bulldozed their way for three touchdowns.

Playing one of their best games of the season, the Golden Eagles clawed the Concord Mountain Lions to shreds as they unleashed a devastating offense. The Gee Birds made the Mountain Lions look like kittens as they routed them 61-19.

The Eagles scored twice in every quarter but the third, when they crossed the goal line three times on the way to scoring one of the highest single game scores since the Eagles slaughtered W. Va. Tech 61-13.

The Eagles used their second team most of the first half after the first platoon ran off touchdown drives of 80 and 54 yards.

Morris Harvey routed Moorehead State College, 40-7, November 12. The win evened MH's record with four wins and four losses.

Gee Eagles' fullback, Paul Skidmore, picked up 111 yards and scored twice to lead MH's offense.

Morris Harvey lost to a powerful Ohio University team, November 19. The 32-13 defeat by the hands of the highly-regarded Mid-American conference member ended the Gee Birds' '55 season with four wins and five losses.

W.V.I.C. Champs

Morris Harvey's Golden Eagles opened their '55 season with a neck and neck battle with Glenville, 107-92, and routed Beckley College 107-68. December 8 the Ohio University Bobcats traveled to Morris Harvey and defeated the Eagles 91-97. In the second game of the road MH crushed Concord College 102-79.

Pre-Christmas basketball activity sent the Golden Eagles to Washington, D. C. and Maryland for three games. Georgetown U. nipped MH by a close 75-68 score in the first game of the Eastern road trip. The Eagles nipped a highly touted Mt. Saint Marys' quint, of Maryland, 86-83, in their second game. In the last game of the Eastern tour they downed the highly spirited 'five' of American University 84-69.

January 4 the Eagles encountered West Virginia Wesleyan at the Field House, and defeated them 99-85. Two days later the Eagles clawed Bethany 98-54. Davis-Elkins pulled the upset of the year, on fateful January 13, as they nipped the Eagles 79-71. The "game of the year" was played in Huntington, January 16, with inter-city rival Marshall College, winner of the powerful Mid-American Conference. The Big Green defeated the Gee Birds 115-76.

The Golden Eagles used West Virginia Tech as the pivot point to vault them into the undisputed leadership of the W.V.I.C., as they downed the Techmen 97-84, January 21, in Charleston.

The Tech victory was the big one for the Eagles as it set the spark under a red hot four-game winning streak which includes victories over Glenville 82-71, Wesleyan 74-67, West Liberty 107-99, and Alderson-Broadus 97-82.

February 6 the Gee Birds traveled to Alderson-Broadus and were turned back 73-75. The next day the Eagles trounced D-E 87-74.

Playing their next home game February 10, the Eagles started a three-game winning streak. The Birds broke the century mark at all the games as they rode rough-shod over Potomac State 105-74, W. Va. Tech 121-104, and Concord 112-104.

Bringing the winning streak to a sharp halt was Baldwin-Wallace who nipped MH 114-121. In an exhibition game at Morris Harvey the Akron Goodyear team crushed the Eagles 79-65. In the last game of the season Marshall defeated the Gee Birds 109-91.

We Play Baseball Too

Posting a six and six record last year with victories over such powers as Marshall, Marietta, and West Virginia Tech, Coach Sparky Adams looks to '56 campaigns with optimism. Tommy Dixon, last year's leading batter and centerfielder, will bolster the Eagles' lineup along with big Melvin Vaughn at first base.

Bob Brown, Bob Hill, and Pug Lowery will be back for mound duties along with some promising freshmen to add to the already potent hill men.

Joe Romano, Ray Jones, and Bob Maxwell are expected to give the Eagles real reason for success as they enter the '56 diamond activity with a seasoned veteran team.

Only two losses were suffered by this year's regulars. One was versatile Jim Carr, lost by graduation, and playmaker George Bennett at shortstop.

Scheduling a 16-game card and hoping for another WVIC championship, Adams has found that the unpredictable weather is his biggest opponent.
